

Florida Gateway Fair Youth Livestock Show Rules

Interpretation of Rules

All questions related to the rules of these shows are to be directed to the Livestock Committee. The Florida Gateway Livestock Committee reserves the right to amend, add to and interpret the following Rules and Regulations; and to arbitrarily settle and determine all questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of, connected with or incident to, the Fair. Any violation of the rules will be addressed by the Florida Gateway Fair on an individual basis.

ELIGIBILITY

1. Exhibitors must be between the ages of 4 and 18 years of age and must be (i) a resident of Columbia County, (ii) currently enrolled in the Columbia County School System, or (iii) enrolled in a valid home school program within Columbia County. Age is determined as of October 26, 2023. Anyone having graduated from, or currently dropped out of school, shall not be eligible to enter the show or sale. No one under out of school suspension on final entry or show day will be allowed to participate in any show or sale. Physical condition of entrants which result in physical danger to the exhibitor or others may result in rejection of entry or disqualification from any show or sale.

Each exhibitor will be required to provide proof of Columbia County Residency or provide proof of enrollment in the Columbia County School District or valid home school program. (valid Driver's license, utility bill or report card)

There will be a mandatory meeting for all exhibitors and one parent or legal guardian. Dates and times will be posted in the project schedule. There will be multiple dates available, and you only are required to attend one.

2. FFA Chapters and 4-H Clubs may enter in any show but cannot have an entry on more than one market show (steers, wethers or swine). Chapters will be treated as a single individual for the purpose of complying with the rules of any show. No school shall be able to have an entry in any show. Additionally, FFA or 4-H Teams shall not be eligible for participation in any show.

ENTRIES AND START OF PROJECT

3. All entries must be made online at <https://columbialiv.fairmanager.com>
4. There is an entry fee of $15.00 per animal.
5. Space is limited and will be assigned in the order entries are received.
6. All animals must be permanently identified. This may include tattoo, brand, or ear tagging. All HOGS are required to have Official USDA 840 EID (RFID) readable ear tags. Your breeder will provide this tag for you. Please make sure to input information correctly when registering your animal. This identification must be included when entered. The exhibitor certifies he/she is the sole owner of the animal being exhibited, and the animal has been cared for the required time frame prior to the fair. The only exception to ownership will be for Club or Chapter Animals.
7. Any show failing to have 6 qualified entries by the required deadline will be cancelled.
8. Florida Gateway Fair reserves the right to reject or accept conditionally any entry of application at any time. Florida Gateway Fair may revoke premiums earned or terminate any exhibitor for just cause, and such decision shall be final.

CLASSES

9. Classes will be established at the discretion of the Florida Gateway Fair Livestock Committee after the ending weigh-in. Every attempt will be made to post classes at least 24 hours prior to the show.

ENTRANCE TO FAIR AND PARKING

10. All exhibitors must enter the Fairgrounds through the West Gate for both the beginning and ending weigh-in for livestock. During fair week, all vehicles must enter via the Livestock Gate and park in the designated parking area.
11. Each exhibitor will be issued one parking pass which will admit the driver and vehicle. However, only one parking pass will be given per family. In addition, each exhibitor will receive two walk-in passes for the exhibitor's parents.
12. Tickets will be issued at the conclusion of the ending weigh-in.

HEALTH RULES AND REGULATIONS

13. All animals must meet health regulations as specified by the Department of Agriculture and are subject to the health requirements as set forth by the State of Florida. State inspectors will be on the grounds to check in all animals and accompanying papers. No animals are to be unloaded without approval from the inspector on duty.

14. A valid health certificate issued by an accredited veterinarian must be presented for each heifer, steer and goat being exhibited at the fair. This certificate should be presented to fair officials at the ending check-in on Thursday.
15. All animals must be healthy and sound, free of lice and warts.

DISCLAIMERS

16. Florida Gateway Fair will not be responsible for any mistakes in the fair bulletin.
17. Florida Gateway Fair or any of its personnel will not be responsible for accidents or errors that may occur. However, every effort will be made to provide for the safety and comfort of the participants, livestock, and guests.
18. The owner or custodian of property of any kind brought to the Fairgrounds; either for exhibit or for other purposes, assumes as a condition of its admission to the grounds, all risk and/or responsibility for its loss, damage, or theft.

GENERAL

19. The Barn Superintendent will be allowed to make rules and regulations regarding the barn area for the protection, comfort and safety of all exhibitors, exhibitor family members and visitors. This may include limiting access of the public to the barns during shows and the sale.
20. No exhibitor will be allowed to SELL more than one (1) market animal (steer, wether or hog). Each exhibitor, however, has the option of weighing in any combination of two market animals. No substitutions of animals may be made after the initial weigh-ins has closed.
21. Exhibitors or their designated person must unload the animals for weigh-in. Florida Gateway Fair will not be responsible for any injuries that may occur to an animal during this process.
22. Misconduct or failure to cooperate with the show management by the exhibitor, parents or other persons, at any time during this project, may automatically disqualify the exhibitor and the animal(s) from this or future shows.

23. Animals entered in the Florida Gateway Fair are to be on exhibit while fair is open. Only exception is while animal is being prepped during species show day of show while animal is being prepped if they are being prepared for the species show day or prior arrangement has been approved by the Florida Gateway Fair Livestock Committee or Fair Board. Penalty for not complying with this rule will result in:
 - a. 1st Offense will be a verbal warning.
 - b. 2nd Offense will result in a fine of $500.
 - c. 3rd Offense, the animal will be sent home, forfeit sale and exhibitor will be disqualified. Due to disqualification exhibitor will not receive premiums.
24. Exhibitors will be required to show their own animal(s) in the show. Exceptions will be addressed by Florida Gateway Fair on an individual basis. Requests for exceptions must be made in writing to Florida Gateway Fair at 164 SW Mary Ethel Lane, Lake City, Florida 32056. No parents will be allowed in the show ring to assist their child without prior consent of Florida Gateway Fair.
25. The Fair Association will supply sufficient bedding for ALL animals. Feed and water pails must be supplied by the exhibitor. All exhibitors are required to feed and care for their animal(s) through Thursday after the sale. Florida Gateway Fair will not be responsible for any items including, but not limited to, items remaining after the sale. A $25.00 per day charge will be assessed for non-compliance and will be deducted from sale proceeds. Feed and water pans are not to be left in beds between feedings. Exhibitors are encouraged to affix their name to any personal belongings brought to the fair.
26. All steers and heifers must be double tied with BOTH a halter and neck rope until final loading on Thursday.
27. Social Media guidelines for the Florida Gateway Fair Board, Volunteers, Leaders, Parents and Exhibitors. Ultimately you are responsible for what you post online. Before creating online content, consider some of the risks, and rewards that are involved. Keep in mind that any of your conduct that adversely affects the Florida Gateway Fair &

Florida Gateway Fair Youth Livestock Show Rules

Livestock Show, its clients, exhibitors, volunteers, parents, leaders and its ability to secure the resources needed to fulfill its mission promises, may result in being disqualified from participating as a board member, volunteer, leader, exhibitor, or committee member for the Florida Gateway Fair. The impact of negative online content and negative comments shall mean loss of premium money, any awards received and disqualification from this year's Livestock Show. At the committee's discretion this could include loss of sale money and disqualification from future Livestock Shows. The Florida Gateway Fair Livestock Board of Directors reserves the right to take down and/or report any content that may be negative to the Florida Gateway Fair image or exhibitors. All actions will be determined by the Livestock Board and the Florida Gateway Board of Directors. All decisions of the committee will be final.

GROOMING, TACK, SHOW BOXES AND PERSONAL BELONGINGS

28. Exhibitors are encouraged to bring their own tack and show boxes to secure their personal belongings for the duration of the fair. Tack boxes, feed or water pails, and other personal belongings used during fair week may be removed Thursday immediately following the close of the sale or before 12 noon on sale day.
29. Exhibitors are expected to groom their own animal for the show. However, parents, guardians, advisors, and leaders may assist the child if necessary. Grooming may take place ONLY IN THE DESIGNATED GROOMING AREA. All animals should be clipped before arriving at fair. There is to be no full body clipping of animals on the Florida Gateway Fair property. You can use clippers to do final touch up if needed. (cattle and goats only)

OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHER

30. An official photographer will be designated by Florida Gateway Fair Any exhibitor wishing to engage the service of this photographer may get in touch with him through the Florida Gateway Fair Office. The designated photographer is the only person allowed to take photos during scheduled events including, but not limited to, livestock show, awards ceremony, and sale. All exhibitors and parents are required to cooperate with the photographer and refrain from violating this rule. Please respect this rule!

58. Exhibitors must be between the ages of 8-18 age determined as of October 26, 2023.
59. The maximum beginning weight at the initial weigh in will not exceed 950 pounds. It is highly recommended that no animal weigh less than 600 pounds at initial weigh in.
60. All steers must be weighed in and properly identified by Florida Gateway Fair. Means of identification will be at the discretion of Florida Gateway Fair Board of Directors. Should an ear tag become infected or fall out, the exhibitor must notify Florida Gateway Fair within 48 hours so that arrangements may be made to replace the tag. NO animal will be admitted at the final weigh-in without the tag issued by Florida Gateway Fair. Steers will be given one (1) opportunity for weighing. The only exception will be at the request of the weigh master. Any animal not meeting weight requirements as set forth in paragraph 6 will be disqualified.
61. All steers must be castrated and dehorned or naturally polled PRIOR to the initial weigh in.
62. All steers will be weighed at the mandatory ending weigh-in at the fairgrounds on October 26, 2023. At this time, each steer must weigh no less than 950 pounds, be a maximum of 24 months of age, have no horns and be manageable in order to be eligible for the show. In addition, each steer must have gained at least 1.25 pounds per day (225 pounds over the term of the project). Each animal will be weighed once. The only exception will be at the request of the weigh master or livestock committee. Any animal not meeting these requirements will be disqualified.
63. Steers will be sifted by disposition. Sifted steers will not be allowed to enter the fair and must be transported home or to another facility as soon as reasonably possible after disqualification. No steer can be exhibited that cannot be responsibly managed. A reasonable length of time will be given to the exhibitor and animal deemed unruly to demonstrate that the animal can be calmed and safely exhibited. If, at any time the animal is deemed as unmanageable, it may be disqualified and must be immediately removed from the fairgrounds.
64. No nose rings or tongs will be used to assist the exhibitor in leading their animal.
65. Florida Gateway Fair reserves the right to reject or accept conditionally any entry of application at any time. Florida Gateway Fair may revoke premiums earned or terminate any exhibitor for just cause, and such decision shall be final.
66. Classes will be established at the discretion of the Florida Gateway Fair Livestock Committee after the ending weigh-in. Every attempt will be made to post classes at least 24 hours prior to the show.
67. All animals must meet health regulations as specified by the Department of Agriculture and are subject to the health requirements as set forth by the State of Florida. State inspectors will be on the grounds to check in all animals and accompanying papers. No animals are to be unloaded without approval from the inspector on duty.
68. Steers are subject to being tested for illegal drugs as they are weighed at ending weigh-in. Additionally, the Grand and Reserve Champions and each class winner may be tested immediately following the show. Any animal testing positive will be disqualified from the show and must be removed from the premises. Exhibitors of any animal testing positive will also forfeit any premiums already awarded. The method of testing will be at the discretion of the Livestock Committee and Fair Board.
69. All animals must be healthy and sound, free of lice and warts.

Florida Gateway Fair Youth Livestock Show Rules

70. A complete record book will be required and must be turned in no later than one hour following the conclusion of the ending weigh-in on Thursday.
